*Message of Welcome from the Prime Minister
Mr. Bob Hawke*

As squash is among the many sports in which Australia has achieved international distinction, we welcome the honour of hosting the 4th World Women's Squash Championships in Perth. Australia is doubly honoured, in fact, as we were also privileged to host the Inaugural 1976 World Championships in Brisbane.

The Australian Government is committed to assist the development of sport in Australia and sees the staging of these World Championships as an excellent opportunity to increase even further the popularity of squash in this country. Already we have some 100,000 registered participants and almost a million other recreational squash players.

We are a proud sporting nation and, with our experience of hosting major international events, I am confident that all concerned in this prestigious program comprising a World Teams Event and Individual Events will be impressed with our facilities, organisation and with our hospitality.

I look forward with all sports-loving Australians to a highly successful and memorable staging of the 4th World Women's Squash Championships.

*Message from the Premier of Western Australia
Mr. Brian Burke, M.L.A.*

On behalf of the people and the Government of Western Australia I extend a warm welcome to all of the players and officials who will be visiting Perth for the 4th Women's World Squash Championships.

I trust that our visitors will enjoy their stay in Perth as much as we will enjoy the opportunity to welcome them.

It is appropriate that this international competition should be staged in Perth where the facilities are of a very high standard and where our local players — men and women — have reached the top at both the national and international levels.

It is encouraging to know that this year's championships will also feature for the first time — the World Junior Title.

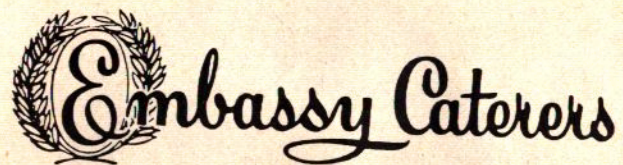

These younger players, some of whom will in future years go on to become world champions, stand to benefit considerably from their experiences at the Western Australian International Squash Centre where the 1983 World Titles will be contested.

World attention on women's squash will focus directly on Perth in October for these events — a city which has accepted the challenge in the past to stage major international sporting events.

I am sure that the successes of the past will be repeated again for the 4th Women's World Squash Championships.

We welcome these competitions as an exciting addition to Western Australia's sporting calendar.

Brian Burke

Message from President
Australian Squash Rackets
Association
Mr. Vic. Belsham

It is with great pleasure that I welcome competitors, coaches and officials to this premier event in World Womens Squash and in particular those who have travelled from their overseas homes to be here in sunny Perth. Particular welcome is extended to officials of the WISRF and ISRF in attendance.

The efficiency of any squash carnival evolves from the forward planning that precedes the event and you can be assured that the SRA of Western Australia under the guidance of Ken Legge, Association Staff and Del Mazzucchelli together with her Fourth World Womens Sub-Committee, propose to build on their reputation for high excellence.

No world event would be successful without a generous sponsor and I personally thank the Commonwealth Government and the Town and Country W.A. Building Society — it is comforting to know that the sport can count on support in these difficult economic times — similar thanks to other supporting sponsors.

Special mention of the untiring efforts of Janet Shardlow for World Womens Squash is appropriate at this time as she prepares to step down as the World President — congratulations Janet on a job well done.

In our efforts to make these Fourth World Womens Championships a truly national event all State Presidents will attend the final of the individual championships — they join with me in wishing all competitors and associated officials every success in this carnival and may the fond memories of Perth, Western Australia, remain with all involved for a very long time.

Staminade

Thirst — the natural signal

When excessive loss of sweat is replaced with water alone, a deficiency of mineral salts develops. The body has a natural signal — thirst — to warn that its supply of water and mineral salts requires replenishment. Mineral salts perform a number of essential functions including:

- Maintaining muscle tone
- Maintaining reflexes
- Converting carbohydrates into energy

Staminade replaces a range of mineral salts

Staminade is a scientifically prepared formula designed to replace fluid and mineral salts lost through sweat during heavy activity and hot environments. In addition, the presence of glucose in Staminade not only provides a source of rapidly available energy, but also assists in the absorption of the mineral salts into the body. It is a pleasant tasting solution when diluted according to instruction.

Staminade is essential to sports men and women to restore stamina and satisfy thirst during the games. Top Australian stars such as John Newcombe use and recommend Staminade.

Message from Janet Shardlow, M.B.E. Chairman W.I.S.R.F.

As President it gives me great pleasure to welcome players, officials and spectators to the 1983 Women's World Event. Three Individual World Titles will be contested and the climax will be the World Team Championship with 10 countries competing.

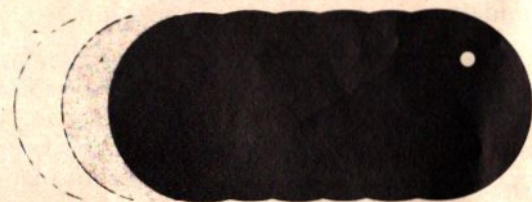

An event of this standing is only possible when supported by generous sponsorship and our thanks go to Town & Country W.A., Swan Brewery, Staminade and Hardie Containers. Most importantly our thanks to the Australian Squash Rackets Association and the Western Australian Association for staging this event. Perth and the International Squash Centre on the campus of the Institute of Technology, South Bentley, are outstanding venues.

We hope that players, officials and spectators will all contribute to the success of the matches and to the enjoyment of everyone. Squash is a fine game, let us demonstrate this to the world.

Janet

Message from Del Mazzucchelli Chairman Organising Committee

The organizing committee for the 4th Women's World Squash Championships are pleased to welcome the many competitors from other countries and States of Australia who have come to Perth to participate.

The championships are the most comprehensive ever, with the inclusion of the inaugural World Junior and Senior Womens Titles, the Invitation O/35 and Junior Test matches between Australia and New Zealand.

To represent one's country is the ultimate for any athlete and I congratulate those who have been selected to represent their nation in the 3rd World Teams event. The members of my committee are no less representative of our country than the players and Australia can be proud of their efforts. Like true sportsmen and women they have endeavoured to their utmost, to ensure a tournament happy to be recalled, and hospitality that may long be remembered. I sincerely thank them for their support. To win is important, to participate even more so. May we all share the enjoyment of participation and the experience of winning new friends.

YOUR HOSTS S.R.A.W.A. and WA International Squash Centre

The W.A. International Squash Centre emerged in 1981 as the headquarters for squash in Western Australia. The magnificent complex, built on the campus at the Institute of Technology, was completed in May 1981 at a cost of $420,000.00; the major feature being an international standard exhibition court, with a glass-backed wall and seating to accommodate more than 200 people. Officials of the S.R.A. of W.A. had worked and planned for years to ensure suitable headquarters and the centre is the end result of the S.R.A.'s building fund levy which has operated in pennant squash for 12 years. A joint agreement was set up with the W.A. Institute of Technology which enabled the S.R.A. to develop its own image in relation to the 11-court complex. This magnificent International Centre, together with a hard-working and enterprising Association committee earned for W.A. the right to stage the 1983 Women's World Squash Championships.

ENGLAND

LISA OPIE

Age 20, English ranking No. 1. Over the last four years Lisa has made a tremendous impact on the women's game of squash in England. Although still a junior, she began winning senior titles in 1979 and by 1981 had earned herself a place in the England team. By October 1981 Lisa was improving at such a rate that she gained fourth place in the World Championships, and won the World Junior Invitation as well as representing England at No. 2 string. To date Lisa has gained 18 international caps and currently holds the British under 23 open title.

MARTINE LE MOIGNAN

Age 21, English ranking No. 2. At the last World Championships in 1981, Martine came sixth and was a member of the England team competing in the Team Championship. On her return to England in the same year she brought the season to a peak by winning the British under 23 Open and reaching the final of the British Closed. With perhaps the most deceptive style amongst the current women players, Martine is an adventurous player who delights in stroke play. She has represented England on 21 occasions and her considerable talent will bring her many further honours.

RUTH STRAUSS

Ruth's remarkable racket skills enable her to hit winners from any part of the court. She has had a most distinguished junior career — first winning the British under-19 open at the age of 24, and regaining the title for a second time in 1981. In the same year Ruth came third in the World junior championship, and last season she achieved third place in the Just Juice British closed championship.

ANGELA SMITH

Age 30, English ranking No. 3. Angela won her first national title in 1975 precipitating a spectacular rise through the national rankings. Since then she has collected an impressive string of major titles and also has the consistent ability to reserve her best form for the big occasion. Angela currently holds a prime coaching post in Nassau in the Bahamas and she is very much the senior player in the team. She has played in the England team at both World Team Championships held to date — in 1979 she played at No. 2 and in 1981 at No. 1 — and her total number of representative appearances number 19 for England and seven for Great Britain.

BARBARA DIGGENS

Age 34, English ranking No. 6. A professional squash and tennis coach from Brighton, Barbara is also the England captain/manager and has trained the team since 1980. NEW ZEALAND

ROBYN BLACKWOOD

From the North Shore Squash Club, aged 25, arts graduate and professional squash player.

Was runner-up in the 1980 N.Z. Championships and was a previous winner of National Junior and Under 23 titles. She represented New Zealand as a junior in 1974 and 1975 and as a senior in 1979, 1980 and 1981. After a surprising loss to Susan Devoy in the 1981 semi-finals at North Shore, her game developed remarkably. After being ranked 8th in the World in 1981 she is now in No. 3 position which is the highest ranking for any New Zealand squash player ever. She dominated the New Zealand scene in 1982 winning every event including her first national title. In the last two years she has defeated virtually every world ranked player apart from the current No. 1 Vicki Cardwell.

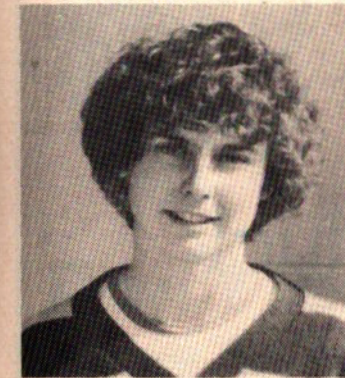

She is a very graceful mover around the court and is particularly strong on the backhand, with her all court game and consistency as other attributes.

SUSAN DEVOY

From the Hamilton Squash Club, Hamilton, aged 19 years, professional squash player.

Current New Zealand junior open champion and previous winner of under 13, 15 and 17 National titles and has also won the 1980 Queensland junior and 1981 under 23 championships. She represented New Zealand in the 1981 World Championships where she reached the junior semi-final and she subsequently competed in Europe. Lost in the 1982 Adidas and National finals she then again played the European season where she made a significant advance reaching the quarter-finals of the British Open as well as gaining many other successes, and as a result of her performances is now ranked No. 10 in the world and will undoubtedly make further advances. She is very quick on the court and always has a good drop shot. In Australia earlier this season she twice defeated Rhonda Thorne the reigning world champion, followed by a victory over Robyn Blackwood in the Adidas finals.

SHERYL CLARKE

From the Hamilton Squash Club, Hamilton, university graduate, aged 22. National 1977 under 17 and 1979 under 19 champion as well as winning the junior open in 1978 and winner of the 1983 under 23 championship. Played her early squash in Palmerston North. Was relatively inactive for some seasons due to studies, but has returned to regular competitive play in the last two seasons and could still achieve the heights predicted for her as a junior.

DONNA GURRAN

From the Remuera Squash Club, Auckland, aged 20, clerical assistant.

A former member of the Edgecumbe Club in the Bay of Plenty, she is another of the many players produced in that district. Shifted to Auckland in 1982. She won the under 19 National title in 1981 and in that season represented New Zealand as a junior in the World Championships with success. Has played consistently throughout the last two seasons and although hampered by an eye injury earlier this year now looks likely to make rapid improvement.

JOANNE WILLIAMS

Williams (formerly Milne), Joanne is from the Sumner Club, Christchurch, P.E. graduate, aged 23 years.

National 1977 under 17 and junior open champion, and 1982 under 23 champion. She was a member of the 1980 N.Z. team in Australia and at the 1981 World Championships. Made steady progress in 1981 but has not been able to actually threaten either Robyn Blackwood or Susan Devoy, but has had a successful local tournament record in 1983. At her top form displays good control and boasts and drops with effect. Recently married and is now living in Taihape.

SUSIE SIMCOCK (Manager)

From the Remuera Squash Club in Auckland, Mrs Simcock has been a prominent Auckland player for several seasons and has attained a high standard having regard to the fact that she took up the sport after her family commitments became less demanding. Has an attractive personality and her training as a physiotherapist as well as her ability to relate to people have made her a successful manager of past New Zealand teams including the 1981 World Championships in Canada. She has also been active as an administrator at club and district levels. She is her countries representative on the W.I.S.R.F.

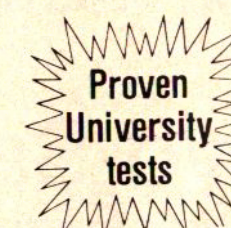

JENNY WEBSTER (Manager Juniors)

Winner of four New Zealand titles and National representative in Australia six times and Great Britain twice, as well as at home. Currently seeded sixth in New Zealand. She is still a formidable competitor with the ability to make effective use of drops and volleys, and will be playing in the seniors event in Perth. She managed the 1982 National junior team and with her experience and attitude she has the ideal background for a manager.

SWEDEN

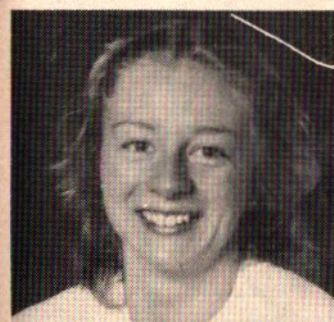

AGNETA SAMUELSSON

During the last couple of years Agneta has been the leading squash lady in Sweden. She has won the Swedish Closed in 1981 and the Swedish Open 79, 80 and 81. These are her best victories among many others. Also in the Swedish Team Championships she has been successful by being in the winning team 78, 79, 81 and 82. She has been representing Sweden in the European Championships since the ladies tournament started in 78 and played for Sweden in the World Championships both 79 and 81. Now at 32 she is still developing as a player and represents sound basic squash.

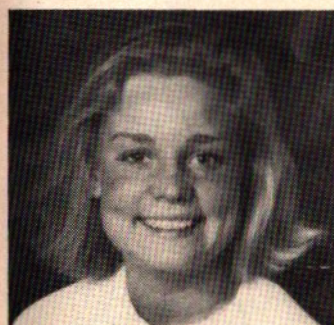

EVA LUNDOVIST

Eva is now Agneta's first opponent in Sweden. She showed her new strength by winning the Swedish Closed over Agneta in December 1982. She played in the same club and team as Agneta, so it's not curious that their club, Malmo SRC, is winning. Also Eva has represented Sweden a lot both in the European and World Championships. Eva is representing a more attacking squash than Agneta and as she is about 5 years younger, she will probably take over the ladies squash throne in Sweden.

LENA FRIDEN

Lena is the leading player among the younger generation. Her break came when she represented Sweden in the World junior event in Kungälv 1980. She is working hard and has worked her way to the top of the Swedish rankings during the last two years. In our top tournaments you see Lena in the semi finals most of the time. She has represented Sweden several times during the last year and we guess she has a great future in squash. She is strong and plays very solid.

LENA ARLEKLO

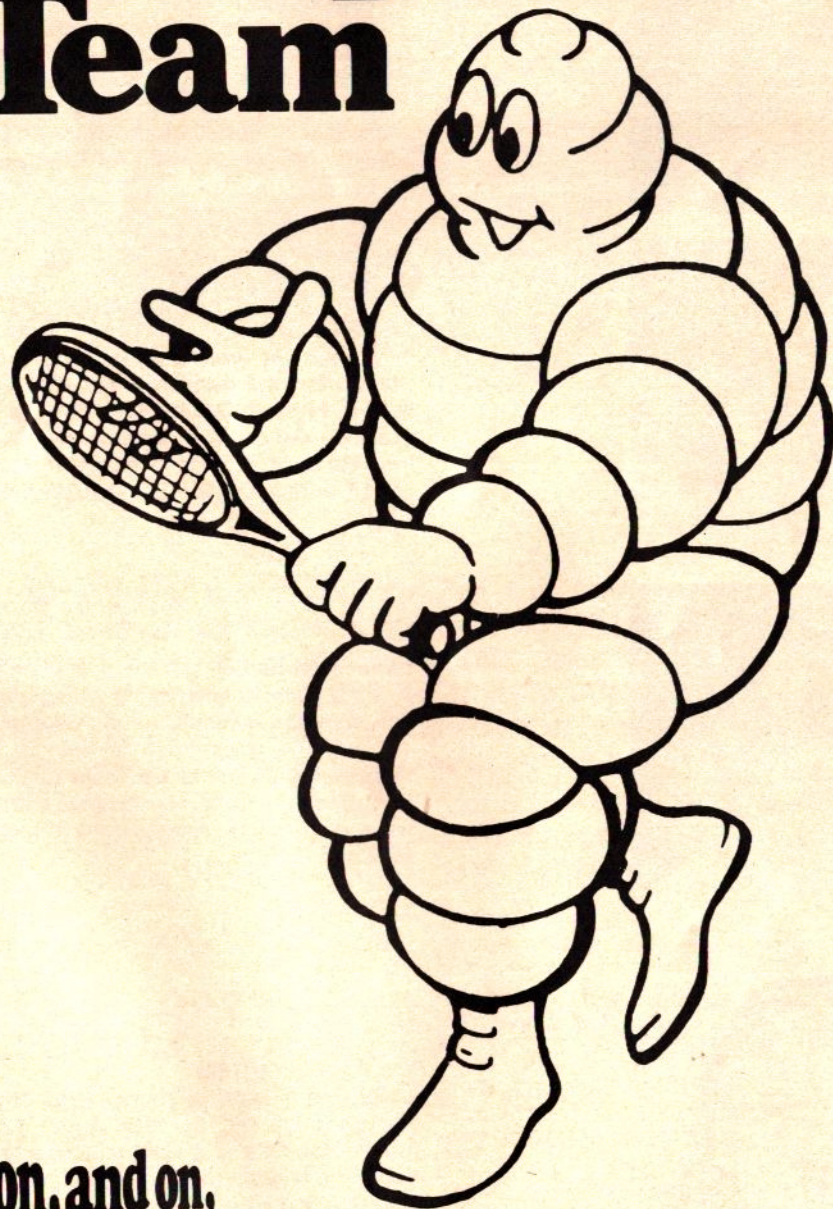

Lena is also an interesting young player, who entered the bigger scene in Kungälv. She won the Swedish Junior Championship in 1979 (under 16) and 1981 (under 19) and has represented Sweden in the European Championships. Her club, SK Triangeln, won the ladies Team Championship in 1982 and Lena was an important part of that victory. Her result is a little bit more up and down but she is very good when it's her day. Among other things you'll be amazed when you see how fast this small girl is.

YVONNE NYGREN

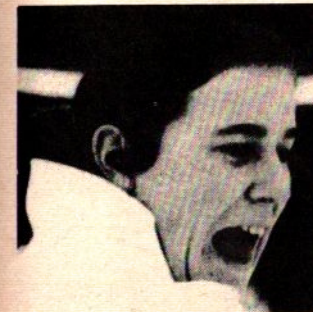

Yvonne is another young player from the Swedish junior team in Kungälv. Her best wins are the Swedish Junior Championship in 1978 (under 16) and 1980 (under 19). She is a very reliable player whom you can trust in all tournaments. Yvonne left basketball when her successes in squash started. A decision she hasn't regretted and which Swedish squash is grateful for.

ALICIA McCONNELL

This junior from the University of Pennsylvania has won National Junior, Collegiate and Open titles — has not been defeated in hard ball — the American version of softball in the last two years. A very versatile young lady who plays lacross, basketball, tennis and is interested in fashion design.

NANCY GENGLER

A member of a famous "racquet" family including Stan Smith as a brother-in-law. Nancy is the squash player in the family. She is a graduate of Princeton University, a Masters degree candidate in psychology and a former National Intercollegiate champion. Currently ranked number two in the United States.

MARY HULBERT

A junior at Harvard University majoring in economics. Known for her rather long legs and red hair, Mary is a newcomer to international squash. She works hard at her game and the results can only be awesome.

MARIANN GREENBERG

This racket sports lady — old by some standards — has the distinction of having played in the 1983 U.S. Open in tennis. Mariann has participated on three international teams and is looking forward to her best ever result.

CAROL WEYMULLER

Another veteran also participating on her fourth international team. Carol is another tennis player who has made the transition to squash. Known as a great teacher, super doubles player (squash and tennis) and is a very determined singles player.

GAIL RAMSAY

Another former intercollegiate champion from Penn State University, currently the squash professional at the Heights Casino in Bklyn. Gail is a formerly ranked tennis player who was an art major in college. Currently ranked number three in the United States and is the National Doumixed Doublex champion and part of the World champion womens doubles tandem.

Visiting International Stars

VICKI CARDWELL

At 27 years, Vicki is the current British open champion having annexed this title in the last 4 years. In 1974 Vicki scraped into the South Australian senior team and subsequently was chosen to tour New Zealand in the under 23 years Australian team. 1975 saw Vicki as number four in South Australia and improved to be ranked sixth in Australia the following year. Vicki was runner-up in the British Open and won the Australian individual championship, a title she has held ever since. Vicki is fortunate to have a temperament which resists pressure, and constantly enables her to peak at the best possible moment. Her ambition is to win the only major title that has eluded her - the Women's World Open.

SUE COGSWELL

Sue has represented Great Britain at home and abroad 18 times, and also won 19 caps for England. She was British Champion and No. 1 player on the Great Britain team that won the World Team Championships in 1979. A qualified physiotherapist in her home town of Birmingham, Sue is now a professional player and coach. In her most recent performance she was runner-up to Vicki Cardwell in the 1983 Australian Open.

SEOK HUI LIM

Singapore National under 19 junior champion from 1979 to 1983, also National women's open champion from 1981-1983. In 1981 she was runner-up in the East Asian women's individual championship and the next year played at the No. 1 position for Singapore in the East Asian women's team championship. This year she won the Asian junior girls championship.

Rules for team events

At least 24 hours before the start of the first match of the championship each team shall lodge in a sealed envelope with the adjudicator(s) the names of all players in the team, in descending order of strength. Where a team has four or more playing members, the order of strength lodged shall cover all players.

The order shall be adhered to throughout the championship, subject to a requested change in the order being substantiated to the satisfaction of the adjudicator(s).

The teams shall be declared 24 hours before the first match. For subsequent matches, the teams will be declared within one hour of completion of play of the previous round. Immediately after the declaration of teams the order of play shall be regulated by the toss of a coin. The winner of the toss shall elect which tie shall be played first. The loser of the toss shall elect which tie shall be played second. The third tie will follow. Further substitution may only be allowed with the approval of the adjudicator(s).

One point shall be awarded to the winning team in each match. In the event of a tie for any position in the final result table, the team which won the most individual ties shall be placed above the other tied teams. In the event of the teams concerned having won the same number of ties, the team which won the most games shall be placed above the other tied teams. In event of a tie in games won, the teams concerned shall play off.

Western Australia is also famous for its black swans (from which the river derives its name) pictured here on the tranquil waters of Lake Monger. The red and green Kangaroo Paw is perhaps the most distinctive of our native plants and is one of the 6,500 different known species of wildflowers found in Western Australia.
