رسالة الرئيس التنفيذي اتحاد محترفي الإسكواش

إنه لمن دواعي سروري ونيابة عن اتحاد محترفي الإسكواش، أن أرحب بكم في بطولة العالم لاتحاد محترفي الاسكواش ٢٠١٢ في الدوحة.

تستضيف قطر هذا الحدث المرموق للمرة الثالثة في مجمع خليفة الدولي للتنس والإسكواش في الدوحة حيث تقدّم في البطولة ثاني أكبر جوائز نقدية في تاريخ الرياضة.

ويتقدم اتحاد محترفي الإسكواش بالشكر الجزيل لرئيس اتحاد قطر للإسكواش، السيد نبيل علي بن علي، للدعم الكبير الذي قدمه للعبة الإسكواش على مدى السنوات الـ ١٢ الماضية. ونأمل أن تكون دورة هذا العام من بطولة العالم الأكثر منافسة من أي وقت مضى نظرا لمشاركة أقوى اللاعبين فيها، إذ سيكون من المثير أن نرى ما إذا كان نيك ماثيو سيفوز بثالث لقب له على التوالي مع محاولة نظرائه من الأبطال، مثل جيمس ويلستروب، ورامي عاشور، وغريغوري غوتيه، على سبيل المثال لا الحصر، منعه من تحقيق ذلك.

وقد شهدت هذه الرياضة تحولات مثيرة في السنوات الأخيرة من حيث الانتشار واجتذاب جميع الأجيال، صغارا وكبارا. وأنا على يقين من أن المشجعين سوف يستمتعون بالأداء المثير لأسرع وأكفأ وأمهر وأنجح اللاعبين الذين يسعون للتتويج وتستضيفهم قطر من ٣١ دولة مختلفة.

نيابة عن اتحاد محترفي الاسكواش، أشكركم على دعمكم لأهم بطولة للإسكواش في العالم لهذا العام. ونحن على يقين من أنها ستكون بطولة لا تنسى، ونتمنى حظا سعيدا لجميع اللاعبين.

PSA Profile

James Willstrop, England's most successful junior player of all time, fulfilled his spectacular promise as a PSA World Tour player by earning the world number one ranking in January 2012 after a sensational three-tournament victory run at the end of 2011. In February, the 29-year-old from Leeds briefly lost pole position to rival and fellow Englishman Nick Matthew - who topped the list throughout 2011 - but regained it the following month and continues in that prestigious position until today.

PSA Profile

Tom Richards is the 'new boy' of the England squash team who reinforced his status as the country's fifth best player in September when he celebrated a career-high world No12 ranking - just a single slot behind his experienced fellow countryman Daryl Selby. After turning pro in 2005, he made good progress on the PSA World Tour, almost making the top 50 in 2007 before being forced to take a long layoff with a knee injury - during which time he slumped to outside the top 120. A British Junior U12 & U13 National champion, he made his mark on the senior stage on home soil at the Hithercroft Open in Oxford in June 2008, when he won his maiden Tour trophy.

PSA Profile

Borja Golan has been leading Spanish interest in squash for most of this millennium - but in late 2009 suffered almost simultaneous extreme highs and lows. In August he battled through to the final of the Colombian Open in Bogota where, after stretching top seed David Palmer to a tie-break fifth game decider, he suffered a career-threatening knee injury which took him out of the game for nine months. But two days later, this success saw Golan make his debut in the world top ten - which not only marked a career-high ranking for the now 29-year-old from Santiago de Compostela, but also saw him overtake 90's star Austin Adarraga to become the highest-ranked Spaniard of all-time.
