BDO CELEBRATES 10 YEARS IN CAYMAN

We recently celebrated our 10th anniversary in the Cayman Islands with a party for over 300 guests at the National Gallery. Instead of the usual speeches, our Managing Partner Glen Trenouth introduced a 'mockumentary' film detailing why we won this years 'Employer of the Year' award. With Flair bartenders and entertainment from Zero Gravity Circus, the party was certainly one to remember.

Since we arrived in 2002, BDO Cayman has enjoyed rapid growth and now offers professional auditing, accounting, insolvency, tax and management consultancy services on a worldwide basis. With more than 1,100 offices in over 130 countries, BDO is poised to serve you, wherever in the world you do business, as a truly unified global organisation.

For more information, call us on + (345) 943 8800 or visit our website www.bdo.ky

You can also 'like' BDO Cayman Islands on facebook where you can see our mockumentary film.

Welcome

HON. W. MCKEEVA BUSH, OBE, JP
PREMIER AND MINISTER OF FINANCE, TOURISM AND DEVELOPMENT

On behalf of the Government and the people of the Cayman Islands, I am delighted to extend a warm Caymanian welcome to the world's best squash players, who have travelled from near and far to compete in the 2012 Cayman Islands World Squash Open, presented by BDO.

Your visit to the Cayman Islands makes this a very special time for our country and we are particularly pleased that the many spectators, fans and young school children within our shores will have the opportunity to view world class squash being played right here at home.

The Cayman Islands Ministry and the Department of Tourism are proud sponsors of the World Squash Open because we believe that first class events of this caliber greatly assist in building the Cayman Islands reputation as a sports tourism destination. Sports tourism is an essential niche market for the development of our already diverse tourism product and we are honored to once again be afforded the privilege of hosting this prestigious event.

I am confident that the Cayman Islands will exceed the aspirations of tournament officials and will also cater to the expectations of excited players, fans and spectators. I therefore thank all of the sponsors for your continued patronage and support and wish all of the players a successful tournament.

Thank you all, and now, let us see the best of Women's squash right here in the Cayman Islands!

A message from BDO

GLEN TRENOUTH (BDO)

BDO are pleased to welcome you to the 2012 Cayman Islands World Squash Open and are delighted to be this year's presenting sponsor.

BDO has believed in the event's vision and long term plans since its inception, supporting the tournament from the outset. It is the largest event on the Women's squash association pro tour attracting most of the top players and we feel privileged to support such a momentous event to this day.

The Open continues to innovate and develop year on year, attracting worldwide visitors and creating a real buzz on the island and, more importantly, promoting this fantastic sport to the youth of the Cayman Islands. Events like this can really help make a difference to the Cayman Islands and the investment provides the children of Cayman with opportunities to excel and grow in sports.

This is a real achievement for the Cayman Islands National Squash Association and the Cayman Islands and would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of Mr. Dan Kneipp, the support of Government, Camana Bay and many other sponsors.

We wish all of the players good luck and look forward with great anticipation to seeing everyone at this year's event at Camana Bay.

BritCay has been protecting lifestyles and livelihoods since 1984. Being "good old BritCay" means a lot to us. For example, when we settled $300 million in Hurricane Ivan claims, we learned from the experience. Over $1 million was subsequently invested in a quick-to-install temporary office facility and a Category 5 proof data protection unit in Florida. If a major storm strikes offices and communications lines again, we will quickly be able to operate as normal. We may not be as old as The Bluff, but we would like to think we are just as solid and we intend to remain "good old BritCay" for many years to come.

The Cayman Islands National Squash Association (CINSA) is the governing body for squash in the Cayman Islands.

CINSA is responsible for junior squash, representative teams including junior and senior events, after-school and School squash, Cayman Islands Squash Open, National Championships and Caribbean Championships.

Working with a range of sponsors, including Maples, Butterfield and Digicel, CINSA has been able to offer free squash for Cayman Government and private schools, and heavily subsidised squash programmes for the intermediate and advanced squash programmes.

The Cayman Open has helped fund a full time professional squash coach hired by CINSA. The Dunlop squash equipment sponsored by the Cayman Open has meant that all school programmes have had access to free squash equipment for the past four years.

CINSA is run by a volunteer board of Directors made up of: Janet Sairsingh (Chairperson), Scott Macdonald, Marc Kish, Ken Moore, Natalie Lawson and Jane Kelly.

A Thank You, the Caymankind Way

The Cayman Islands Department of Tourism wishes to extend our warmest thanks to all members of the organising committee, athletes, and volunteers of the 2012 Cayman Islands World Squash Open, presented by BDO. Your dedication and hard work truly epitomises the inherent kindness and warmth of our islands. If it wasn't for your efforts, we wouldn't be able to promise 100% of all the event's profits to CINSA's grassroots junior squash programme for equipment and coaching.

FOR THE LOVE OF SPORT. FOR THE LOVE OF CAYMAN.
WELCOME TO CAYMANKIND

Once again, thank you for making the Cayman Islands World Squash Open so special and successful each year, welcoming the squash elite and fans alike to come together in Grand Cayman in sportsmanship and Caymankindness. We hope to see you again and we look forward to carrying on our success with you within the new year.
